"The Boston Globe is one of the country's four great and influential newspapers."

"The editorial excellence of The Globe naturally draws a high quality market. Prominent business executives, political leaders, people who read The Globe because they respect it. As a result, clients who buy space in The Globe know they're getting an ad medium that delivers influence as well as audience.

"As the sixth largest market in the U.S., Boston is extremely important. Therefore it needs a solid, well-respected newspaper like The Boston Globe."

David Lehmkuhl is not alone in his high regard for The Boston Globe. In fact, The Globe has just been awarded two Pulitzer Prizes. And it has recently been named among the country's top 10 newspapers by both TIME and ADWEEK.

Knowing the print media is David Lehmkuhl's business. So when one of his clients has something to sell New England, David buys The Boston Globe. Call Paul Leahy at (617) 929-2144. And discover why New England's most successful businesses are sold on The Boston Globe.

Every morning your ad is served to over 2,000,000 hungry readers.

No paper in Detroit is bigger for breakfast than The Detroit Free Press. Detroit's number one morning paper and the nation's fifth largest. No paper sees more bacon and eggs, pancakes, more coffee or customers every morning. And if you're an advertiser, that translates into more customers feasting their eyes on your ad. Even our Sunday Morning Free Press is bigger than ever for breakfast. It grew 7,883 in circulation over last year. So if you're looking for a place to put your ad, put it in the paper that's not only grown, but still growing. The Detroit Free Press. No wonder, every day, more and more customers and advertisers think of it as the toast of the town.

WE COUNT THE PEOPLE WHO COUNT – YOUR CUSTOMERS

AS A CORNERSTONE for its economic survey and forecasting services, Marketing Economics Institute maintains a comprehensive library of information on the composition and change of U.S. industrial and consumer markets. MEI's nationally recognized team of professional demographers and economists update the county, city and city part files of the library on a continuous basis.

The timeliness and accuracy of the data reflect the attention to detail at local market level made possible by MEI's exclusive system of monitoring activity in all U.S. counties, more than 2,250 cities and towns and in the 40,000 key industrial plants which annually account for 80% of value added by U.S. manufacturing. The resources of the library are made available to regular clients on a contract basis, but individual files may be purchased singly by business planners and research specialists with specific needs. Marketing Economics Institute will provide any of these counts, data files on IBM cards or magnetic tape or will aggregate the data to custom designed client market area formats.

MARKETING ECONOMICS will be happy to discuss how its exclusive demand/supply approach to sales analysis and its wide range of statistical techniques can be used to measure and forecast sales for your product lines.

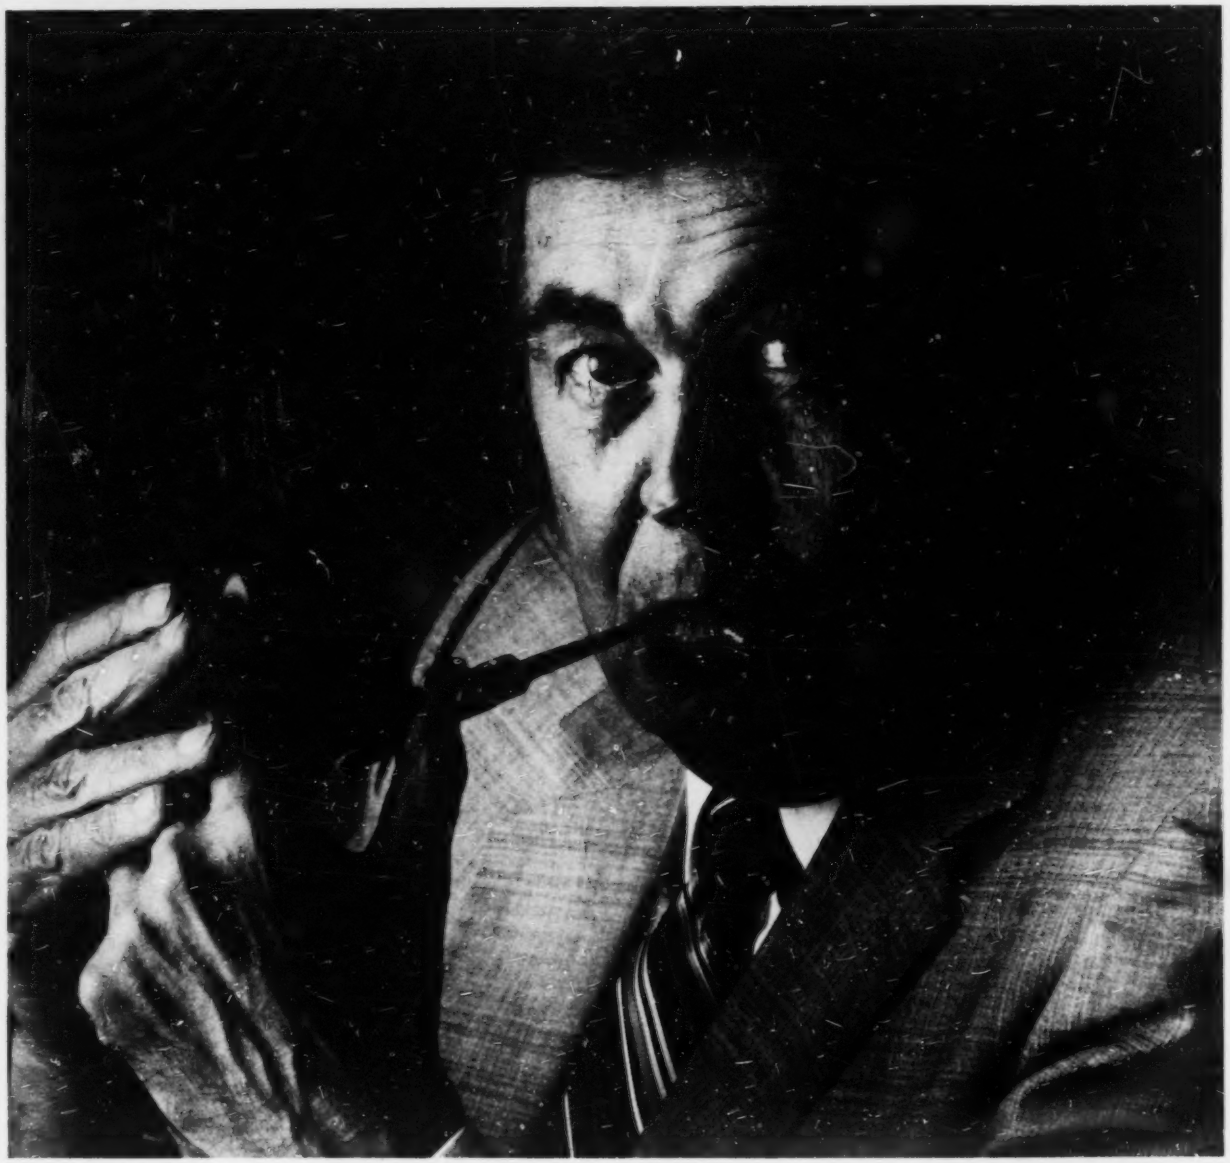
"Line by line, we've outgained every newspaper in the country."

Harry M. Stanley, Jr.
Senior Vice President
The Dallas Morning News



Take a look at the facts. In the first six months of this year, The Dallas Morning News gained more total ad linage than any newspaper in the country. An incredible increase of over 9 million lines. While, during the same time, we also lead the nation in classified ad lines gained.

Why The Dallas Morning News? Simple. Because we dominate Dallas where it counts most. In record-high readership. In top quality demographics. In front-to-back editorial excellence. Every day of the week. Giving every ad dollar total impact with a market supremacy that brought us over 100,000,000 lines of full-run advertising in 1983. A mark we'll surpass well before the end of 1984.

The fact remains. Only one newspaper really delivers Dallas. And we've got the figures to prove what our advertisers have known all along: nobody beats The Dallas Morning News in the morning.

NOBODY BEATS The Dallas Morning News IN THE MORNING.
